

Thankful for Reading

November,
2018

Play a Game

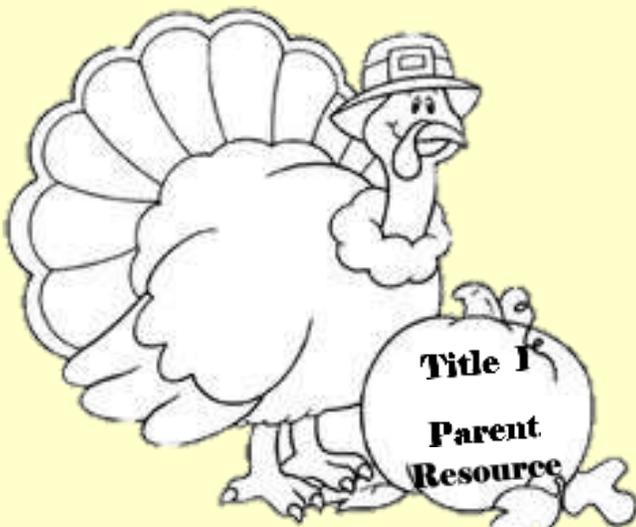

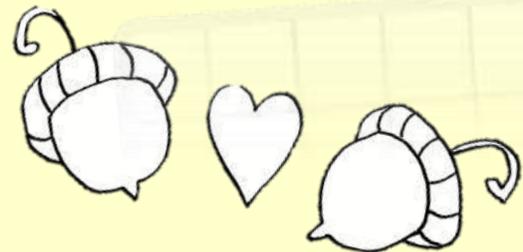

Use a List:

- Holiday Words
- Seasonal Words
- Sight Words
- Story Words
- Etc.

Napkin Writing

Thanksgiving is a time of being thankful for the people in our lives and what we have. One fun activity for families to do is Napkin Writing. Students will take a clean decorative napkin or any napkin and write on the inside of it. These stories can be about anything. Challenge your child and have them use specific words or unique words. You can make them relate to Thanksgiving or stories you shared at the dinner table.